

I believe that the FCC should hold open hearings on its planned deregulation of ownership of broadcasting stations. I believe Congress should evaluate the benefits, or problems, that such deregulation might yield.

I am very concerned that our access to full and complete news coverage is already limited and that the deregulation the FCC plans will make things even worse. We need to encourage freedom of the press.